

The ancient road network and the historical events with which they are connected. Construction of an ancient road, noting the similarities with modern roads. The value of roads: how they unite people, bring wealth and do not destroy the natural environment

